water/sediment interfaces. The chemical cycle of carbon as well as the effect of organic substances on the speciation and distribution of inorganic and organometallic substances are extensively discussed. Much of the recent progress in the area is the direct result of advanced analytical technologies and chemometric applications which are highlighted in the book.

The day before her seventeenth birthday, Lya's life changed forever. Hit by a speeding car and left for dead, she lost the use of her legs as well as some of her faith in the world... Lya learned to live again with the support of her parents. But having discovered that someone bought their silence, Lya is determined to unmask the perpetrator and obtain justice. Her search for the truth takes her to a famous law firm... and down a dangerous path. With the help of her friend Antoine, she'll stop at nothing to get to the bottom of it all...

This book presents a personal account of a Syrian woman's youth in the Suq Saruja (old city) of Damascus in the first half of this century. Author Tergeman wrote the original memoir, Ya Mal al-Sham, in Arabic to preserve the details of a genuine Arab past for Syrian young people and to help them appreciate the architecture of the old quarter with its reminders of earlier values.

This book is volume 3 of the Oluganda Lunyuma series. Oluganda Lunyuma series is a set of simple, enjoyable storybooks written in Luganda, meant to help beginners build up knowledge of past tense speech in Luganda. 'Okugenda Mu Ssomero Lya Siiniya' is a story set in London. It tells of a young person's preparation for secondary school and the anxiety they felt, only to find that secondary school was in many ways liberating. This series has been inspired by the need to teach Luganda to children of Ugandan heritage living in the diaspora. This series has been conceived and developed by Suubi Academy Ltd, to complement Suubi Academy's 'Emiti Emito' Luganda syllabus.
