Patriots And Partisans - Penguin Random House India

Historian and writer Ramachandra Guha explains this in an essay titled A Short History of Congress Chamchagiri which is a part of his recently released book Patriots and Partisans. Most Indians are too young to know this, but the truth is that until about 1969 the Congress was more or less a democratic party, writes Guha.

Luckily for readers everywhere, Ramachandra Guha—India's most visible public intellectual and an academic rock star—bucks that trend. Guha, who has been experiencing something of a purple patch since the publication of his bestselling India After Gandhi, has now given us Patriots & Partisans, a collection of previously published essays revised for a broad audience.
